

Contents

	Page
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	i
FOREWORD	iii
SECTION ONE: INTRODUCTION
1. Background	9
1.1 How the Stella Project began	9
1.2 The toolkit	11
2. Overview	12
2.1 Who should use this toolkit?	12
2.2 How to use the toolkit	12
2.3 What is the purpose of this toolkit?	13
3. Overview of current provision	14
3.1 Current provision	14
3.2 Similarities in the client groups	14
3.3 Working together	15
4. Making the links	16
4.1 Perpetrators and drug and alcohol use: are they responsible for the violence?	16
4.2 Survivors and substance use: are they causing or simply coping with violence?	16
4.3 Facts and statistics	18
5. Key information for both sectors	20
5.1 For domestic violence workers	20
5.2 For drug and alcohol workers	21
6. Key messages	22
7. Minimum standards	23

	Page
SECTION TWO: DRUGS AND ALCOHOL – theory and practice guidance for the domestic violence sector
1. Basic drug and alcohol information	27
1.1 Definitions	27
1.2 Types of substances	27
1.3 Facts and statistics	43
2. Legal issues	45
2.1 Controlled drugs	46
2.2 Production, supply or use of drugs on premises	47
2.3 Closure of premises	48
2.4 Paraphernalia	49
2.5 Frequently asked questions	49
2.6 Drugs policy	53
3. Working with survivors experiencing problematic substance use	55
3.1 Facts and statistics	57
3.2 Practice issues	59
3.2.1 Providing information	59
3.2.2 Screening	61
3.2.3 Assessment	65
3.2.4 Documentation for client files	68
3.2.5 Risk	70
3.2.6 Crisis intervention and emergency drug/alcohol support	72
3.2.7 Safety issues and safety planning	73
3.2.8 HIV and Hepatitis	77
3.3 Strategies for change	80
3.3.1 Giving survivors choices	80
3.3.2 Cycle of Change model	82
3.3.3 Minimum standards	85
3.3.4 Inter-agency working and referrals	85
3.4 Summary and key messages	86
Case Study – Jenny	88

	Page
4. Drug and alcohol services	90
4.1 Different types of drug and alcohol services	90
4.2 Theories and interventions underpinning the substance misuse sector	92
5. Information for practitioners delivering domestic violence perpetrator programmes	94
5.1 Statistics and information	95
5.2 How to ask about drug/alcohol use	97
5.3 What to do when you identify a perpetrator with problematic substance use	98
SECTION THREE: DOMESTIC VIOLENCE – theory and practice guidance for the substance misuse sector
1. Domestic violence information	103
1.1 Definition	103
1.2 Statistics	103
1.3 Domestic violence ‘Power and Control Wheel’	105
1.4 Why stay in an abusive relationship?	106
2. Criminal justice issues	107
2.1 Criminal law	107
2.2 Civil law	110
2.3 Key pieces of legislation	112
3. Working with drug and alcohol users experiencing domestic violence	114
3.1 Important things to remember	115
3.2 If a survivor approaches you for help	115
3.3 Asking about domestic violence – survivor/victim	120
3.4 Documentation for client files	125
3.5 Responding to domestic violence – survivor/victim	126
3.6 Risk assessment and management	127
3.6.1 Assessing risk	127
3.6.2 Multi-Agency Risk Assessment Conferences (MARACs)	130
3.6.3 Information sharing	133
3.6.4 Safety planning with survivors and children	133

	Page
4. Domestic violence service provision	139
4.1 Refuges	139
4.1.1 Refuges in London accepting problematic substance users	141
4.2 Advocacy, outreach and counselling services	145
Case Study - Liz	147
5. Working with domestic violence perpetrators within drug/alcohol services	148
5.1 Facts and statistics	150
5.2 Key messages	151
5.3 Practice issues	155
5.3.1 Routine questioning	155
5.3.2 What to do if your client is perpetrating domestic violence	157
5.3.3 Safety and basic risk assessment	159
5.3.4 Information sharing	162
5.3.5 Recording information	164
5.3.6 Referrals to perpetrator programmes	164
Case Study – Shawn and Angie	167

SECTION FOUR: ISSUES FOR BOTH SECTORS

1. Supporting children living with parental substance misuse and domestic violence	173
1.1 Key messages	175
1.2 Facts and statistics	175
1.3 The overlap between domestic violence, parental substance misuse and child abuse	176
1.4 Protective factors and building resilience in children	180
1.5 Guidance for drug/alcohol agencies	182
1.5.1 Practice guidance	182
1.5.2 Child contact	186
1.5.3 Couples and network therapies	187
1.6 Guidance for domestic violence agencies	189
1.7 Specialist services and resources for children	192
1.7.1 Domestic violence specific	192

	Page
1.7.2 Services which support children around parental substance misuse	193
1.7.3 Websites	194
1.8 Recognising diversity when supporting children	195
1.9 Child protection and legal responsibilities	196
1.10 Government legislation and policy framework	198
1.11 Contacts for parental substance misuse workers in London	201
Case Study – Mende and her children	202
2. Mental health, substance use and domestic violence	206
2.1 Key messages	206
2.2 Domestic violence and mental health	207
2.3 Substance use and mental health	208
2.4 What you can do	209
2.5 Accessing support	209
3. Equalities and diversity issues	211
3.1 Legislation	211
3.1.1 Human Rights Act	211
3.1.2 Gender Equality Duty	212
3.2 Addressing diversity issues	213
3.2.1 General guidelines	213
3.2.2 Supporting disabled survivors	214
3.2.3 Developing culturally specific services – New Roots	215
3.2.4 Working with Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender communities – LGBT Domestic Abuse Forum	216
3.2.5 Supporting male survivors	221
3.3 Guidelines for working with interpreters	222
4. Partnership working	224
4.1 Forming partnerships	224
4.2 Informal methods of building partnerships	227
4.3 Formal methods of partnership building	228
4.4 Finding partners	231
4.5 Challenges in partnerships	236

	Page
5. Supporting staff	238
6. User consultation	240
7. Working at a strategic level – guidance for managers, service directors and commissioners	244
7.1 Local Area Agreements	244
7.2 Alcohol, domestic violence strategies and local drug treatment plans	247
7.3 Monitoring and collecting data	250
7.3.1 Monitoring impact of work	250
7.3.2 Data collection	253
7.4 Guidance for drug and alcohol service managers and commissioners	254
7.5 Guidance for domestic violence service managers	257

SECTION FIVE: SAMPLE DOCUMENTS

1. Stella Project sample drug and alcohol screening tool for use by domestic violence agencies	264
2. Dependency screening tool	267
3. Substance misuse routine inquiry procedures (for survivors and perpetrators)	268
4. Drug and alcohol risk assessment	276
5. Domestic violence screening tool	279
6. Domestic violence risk assessment form	282
7. Sample safety plan	288
8. Domestic violence and abuse sample agency policy	291
9. Domestic violence policy for employees	296
10. Stella Project practice standards for domestic violence agencies	303

	Page
11. Stella Project practice standards for substance misuse agencies	305
12. Referral pathway (substance misuse to domestic violence agencies)	307
13. Referral pathway (domestic violence to substance misuse agencies)	308
14. Sample domestic violence policy statement	309
SECTION SIX: SERVICE DIRECTORY
1. Domestic violence fora and domestic violence coordinators – Greater London	311
2. Drug and alcohol action teams (DAATs) - Greater London	319
3. Domestic violence and associated services	328
4. Drug and alcohol agencies	335
5. Housing services	339
6. Legal services	341
7. Children and young people's services	343
8. Additional services for Black and minority ethnic and refugee communities	345
9. Perpetrator services	347
INDEX	349

	Page
WHAT WORKS PROFILES
The nia project	63
Eaves Women's Aid – Chamlong House	75
Ethnic Alcohol Counselling Hounslow – the Pukaar project	119
Drug and Alcohol Service for London (DASL)	138
Phoenix House and Birmingham Women's Aid project	225
ARP Women's Alcohol Service - domestic violence and alcohol project	230
Camden Women's Aid and the South Camden Drug Service	233
Barnet Service User Group domestic violence poster project	241
Camden Local Area Agreement	246
Greenwich Alcohol Strategy	247
Brent Local Drug Treatment Plan	249
Aquarius substance misuse agency	251

